

Friend of the Industry Award

The NCIS Board of Directors directed NCIS to formally recognize someone who is directly or indirectly involved in the success of the crop insurance industry.

The Friend of the Industry Award is designed to recognize someone who has provided an exceptional and notable contribution to the crop insurance industry. He/she must consistently demonstrate outstanding leadership by going above and beyond his/her responsibility to their employer and serve the crop insurance industry as a whole.

Eligibility

- Candidates must, over a significant time period, have made a notable contribution in support of the crop insurance industry.
- Candidates must have so distinguished themselves by this service that clear evidence is present and can be readily documented.
- Candidates must exhibit strong personal and business ethics.
- Candidates must represent themselves, his/her company, and the crop insurance industry well.

How to Enter

- Select a nominee. This nominee should exemplify the qualities of a true leader. Please consult the eligibility requirements closely.
- Fill out the application on the back of this page and then address the three questions on a separate sheet(s) of paper. Include your contact information. If NCIS has questions regarding the application, the nominator will be contacted.
- Send application and narrative to NCIS by October 15, 2021.

Selection and Presentation

All nominations will be considered. The NCIS Communications & Outreach Committee will review all submissions and make a formal recommendation for selection of this award to the NCIS Board of Directors.

More than one Friend of the Industry Award may be given annually and will be presented at the 2022 Crop Insurance Industry Annual Convention.
